

Deaths.

In Norfolk, Mr. William Archer. In Delaware, Mr. Peter Taylor, aged 31. In Pennsylvania, Mrs. Mary Clymer. In Troy, Mrs. Maria Lane, aged 31. On Long-Island, (N. Y.) Mrs. Sarah De Peyster, aged 76. In Albany, Mrs. Anna Schuyler, aged 59; consort of Col. Phillip P. Schuyler. In Hartford, Miss Sally Shepard. In Berlin, Col. Isaac Lee, esq. In Coventry, Major John Hale. In Rhode-Island, Capt. James Patten; Capt. Nicholas Garrison. In Northampton, Mrs. Jane Beals, of Boston. In Haverhill, Mrs. Dolly Page, aged 60.

On the 8th inst. on the Holland Patent, Mohawk River, Mr. Seth Johnson, merchant, of New-York.

On his passage from Batavia, Capt. Jonathan Dallon; and Mr. John Alexander.

Drowned at Farmington, Miss Elizabeth P. Jones, aged 20.

In this town, on Saturday last, Ebenezer Topliss, eldest son of Samuel Topliss, aged 21, after a lingering sickness, which he bore with fortitude and resignation. His funeral will be on Wednesday 29th inst. from his father's Dwelling-house, Orange-street, at 3 o'clock, which the relations and friends of the family are requested to attend without more particular invitation.

On Saturday last, Mr. Samuel McCleary, aged 37, his funeral will be this afternoon, half past 3 o'clock, from his late Dwelling-house, North-street, which the friends and relations of the family, are requested to attend without further invitation.

On Saturday last, Mr. Cornelius Parks, aged 49—his funeral will proceed from his late Dwelling House, in Nassau-street, this day at 3 o'clock, when his friends and relations are requested to attend.

At Chelsea, Henry Howell Williams, esq. aged 66. His funeral will proceed on Wednesday next, from his Son's, Capt. Andrew Sigourney, in Sherburne's lane, near Bowdoin-square at half past three o'clock.—Friends and relations are desired to attend punctually, without further invitation, weather permitting, if not on Thursday.

THE Members of the Boston Marine Society, are requested to attend the Funeral of Henry H. Williams, esq. on Wednesday next, (if fair weather) from the dwelling house of Mr. Andrew Sigourney, in Sherburne's-Lane, near Bowdoin-Square, at half past 3 o'clock, precisely.

Boston, Dec. 27, 1801.

JAMES SCOTT.