Mrs. Eliza McCart, one of the best known and oldest residents of this part of the State, died at her home in the Huffaker district yesterday. Mrs. McCart came to Reno when this city was barely a stage station, having arrived here, in 1868. She leaves two children, one son and a daughter. Her daughter is the wife of W. K. Ball, a prominent rancher of this vicinity. The funeral was held this afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Church of the Advent, and was largely attended. Reinhart & Co. had charge and conducted the funeral.
