ARLINGTON. The social and supper advertised for Friday evening of this week, has been postponed. Grandma Hopkins is dangerously ill. The new board of trustees held their first meeting this week, appointed M. W. Ryan treasurer and Fred Kepford marshal. They also adopted several new rules which if enforced will be a benefit. Cards and dancing at Clancy's hall to-night. Quite a blaze was started on the roof of Will Thelan's restaurant Sunday morning, and our waterworks, of which so many of our people complain as a nuisance, again got in its good work. Had it not been for prompt action the west side of Main street would have gone up in smoke. It is said that Miss Josie Moore, of Arlington, and Guy Book, of Dixon, were married Wednesday morning. Converse.

PROVIDENCE. Mrs. Beebe has gone to Chillicothe to visit friends and relatives. School election in district No. 1 resulted in the election of C. S. Kinter. Friday evening of this week a reception will be held at the church, for our new pastor and his wife. The reception is tendered by the C.E. society. An invitation is extended to all to come and enjoy the occasion. Two of Mr. Bradley's children are sick. Dr. Lee, of Tiskilwa, is attending to their wants. Mrs. I. J. Kinter has been quite sick, but at present is much improved. A camp of workmen engaged on the new railroad, which runs a little to the west of us, is plainly visible. The people of this locality were in hopes it might come a little nearer than it is going to. If the rumor is true that the C. B. & Q. is to run a road from Sterling to Buda in competition with the North-western, why would it not be a good thing for them to continue the line to Peoria by coming to Providence and Milo, running directly south from this place. By doing this a large tract of rich agricultural land would be materially benefited. Judex.

BUREAU. Mrs. W. H. Fisher went to Chicago, Monday. Communication with Hennepin by telephone was stopped by the parting of the cable under the river. The line is again in working order, however. The body of Alfred Mooney, of La Salle, passed through here for Peoria, last Friday. A large procession of men, wagons and horses passed through this place last Friday. M. G. Dykes went to Missouri on business, Saturday. M. G. Dykes and George Trucks were elected to membership on the school board, the latter to fill a vacancy. Grandmother Charles is still confined to her bed. She seemed to be on the way to recovery, but has been more feeble the last few days. The election Tuesday of last week for this village placed in office James Peterson, president; M. G. Dykes, clerk; D. D. Dow, Isaac Cook, H. Ham and W. Charles, trustees, the last named to fill a vacancy. The democrats had not put anyone in nomination for police magistrate, but on election day a sufficient number of voters wrote the name of Wm. Stephens, the colored barber, to elect him to that office. We do not know what his political faith is, but the democrats were in control. Jacob Charles took a big load of Bureauites to the supper at Grant Searl's Saturday night. The supper was immense, the crowd orderly and full of good fellowship. Don't it rattle your slats to listen to the slang that is used these days? Bet your boots it crushes me, and don't you forget it. When we hear cultured people use it we feel like chewing the rag. They should give it the everlasting shake. Mary M. Moss, widow of D. R. Moss, died at Blue Island, April 16, at the age of 82 years, lacking about 1 month. She was the mother of eight children, five of whom are still living. She was for years a member of the Baptist church, but belonged to the Christian church when she died. She was brot to this place for burial. Rev. Hurless conducted funeral services in the Congregational church. The floral tributes were beyond description. Jack Nife.

HOLLOWAYVILLE. L. M. Barton and his son Henry are both serving as jurors at the county seat this week. Andrew Johnson and his daughter Nora attended church in Princeton last Sunday. Jay Duell and John Faust, of Princeton, were in our town Saturday evening on business. R. H. Lawless has been doing some carpenter work at N. Nelson's the past week. Mr. Lawless is a good workman. Al. Koca is the new manager at the Company store at Seatonville. Al. is a very able and worthy young man and we are glad to hear of him being promoted. Rudolph Weible was elected school director last Saturday. W. F. Schaffer, who has been manager of the company store for the past twelve years, has resigned his position and accepted a position with the same company as manager of a large store in Thayer, Ill. Mr. Schaffer and family will leave Seatonville about the 1st of May. Mr. and Mrs. Schaffer will be greatly missed, as they have been great workers in Sabbath school and church. The school election was held at Dist. No. 6 Saturday night, and F. W. Dreman elected as director in Andrew Hoffman's place. The election was also held in Dist. No. 1 and John Markey re-elected as director. They also voted on having a new school house, which resulted in the affirmative. Lou Garwood, of Princeton, was out in this neighborhood one day last week selling fruit trees. Rev. and Mrs. Odgers and son Joseph and Mr. and Mrs. M. T. W. Latrop, of Princeton, spent last Thursday at J. W. Coddington's. The ball game at the store last Saturday resulted in a defeat for the home team. At the finish the game stood 11 to 27 in favor of Wyandot. Rev. Brooks' sermon last Sunday, on the fifth anniversary of his coming here, deserves special credit, and at the close of the service seven were admitted into the church as members, this making nearly fifty that have been taken in since Mr. Brooks came here. U. S. & Co.

Warren closed his work as a pastor at the United Brethren church last Sunday. He goes to Elroy to take charge of a church at that place. The vocal class concert was fine and it shows that we have good musical talent in our village if it is only developed. The cornet solo by Prof. Chalender was received with hearty applause. Mrs. H. G. Wells entertained her brother and wife, J. M. Arnold, from Ohio, last week. Dr. Blackburn went to Chicago on Friday, returning on Monday. Pliny Tompson and father met with an accident on Sunday morning. They were on their way to church and Myrtle Hamm was riding with them. When they arrived in town they stopped for her to alight, and on jumping out she caught her foot in the lines, jerking one of them from Pliny's hands. The horse started and Pliny, having only one line, pulled the horse around in his efforts to stop it and tipped the buggy over and threw them out. Pliny was scratched some and his father somewhat bruised, but not seriously hurt. Max.

MALDEN. Rev. J. H. Odgers, of Princeton, will give a lecture at the M. E. church Friday evening, April 26. Subject, "Longfellow, the Poet of the American People." Admittance free. The ladies aid society will meet with Mrs. Lina Mitchell Friday afternoon. "All honor to the Women". Our school election Saturday was a fight worth your money, and the result indicates an emphatic indorsement of the present management by the majority of the voters. One hundred and seventy-four votes were cast, ninety by men and eighty-four by the women. Detective Buckley, of the C. B. & Q. visited our town Saturday and arrested Albert and Frank Abrahamson, a couple of boys who have been terrors to our merchants and others, on account of their petty pilfering, which habit has been growing on them until last week, when they broke open a package of tobacco and carried from the depot a butt of tobacco consigned to R. L. Dean, of Dover, and it was not missed until evening. A trap was laid and the boys coaxed into selling some, when they were arrested and confessed and told where the tobacco that was left could be found. They were taken to Princeton for examination. Our school board was organized Tuesday evening by the election of E. Bass for president and L. Osborn clerk. Directors in the townships were elected as follows, Saturday evening: No. 1, W. R. Minkler, of Mendota; F. Minkler and daughter, of Princeton. The following members of Beausant Lodge K. of P. also attended and participated in the services: Knights J. Trulson, T. P. Streeter, Frank A. Johnson, E. M. Ely, J. E. Dabler, J. Anderson, Oscar Peterson, John Wilson, also T. C. Callinan. Robert Steele is quite sick this week. It was reported, and up to the present has not been denied, that at the close of the township election a candidate that got left, went to the phone, and wired home his defeat, and stated that a man who desired to be elected in Malden must start out in the morning with a jug of whiskey in one hand and a box of cigars in the other. While this may be true in regard to township and corporation elections, Saturday's contest has developed the fact that in school matters there is an element that is not under bootleg control, and cannot be coaxed into, and kept in line by the smell of a whiskey bottle. The following short obituary of the late W. J. Motz has been furnished for the TRIBUNE: W. J. Motz, son of Daniel and Frances Motz, born at Byron Green, Ohio, Nov. 19, 1847. Died at Dixon, Ill., April 16, 1901. Enlisted Dec. 16, 1863, Co. F. 110 Ohio Vol. Inf. Miller April 20, 1876. He went to Forreston, Ill., to canvass for nursery stock two weeks before his death. Rev. L. E. Warren has resigned his charge at the U. B. church at Dover and moved to Elroy, Ill. Mrs. T. C. Warrington will conduct the morning service at the Dover U. B. church next Sunday morning. Mrs. Mary Schildts left for Paulina, Iowa, Wednesday, to keep house for her son William. Matt.

THOMAS. Farmers are busy plowing for corn. W. J. Thomas has been busy the past week hauling new goods from Tampico. The boys are catching quite a few fish but not so many as in former years. Wm. Meek attended the Knights of the Globe lodge in Tampico Tuesday evening, and says they are enjoying prosperity just now. There was rather a quiet time at the school election Saturday evening. All seemed to be satisfied with the work and doings of the past year and Oliver Howlett was reelected director. School commenced Monday with Miss Mina Hogeboom of New Bedford as teacher. Miss Hogeboom taught the winter term and gave good satisfaction. The directors believe in keeping a good school. Ras Carlson is busy at Louis Marine's plastering and building chimnies. Our town is surely on a boom, as C. H. Jensen is about to build an implement house and will put in a full and complete line, also handle harness and strap work. Success to you Mr. Jensen in your new enterprise! Harry Walker visited relatives in Sheffield, Sunday, and his brother Lee came home with him, to go to school this summer. Allen, of Princeton, will preach at the church at this place next Sunday, April 28, at 3 o'clock p. m. Sunday school at 2 p. m. promptly.
