

Milford L. 'Monty' Wilson: Newspaper Obituary and Death Notice

Peninsula Daily News (Port Angeles, WA) - Tuesday, May 2, 2006

Deceased Name: Milford L. 'Monty' Wilson

Aug. 19, 1931 -- May 1, 2006

Milford L. "Monty" Wilson, formerly of Port Angeles, died of cancer in Olympia. He was 74. He was born in Winthrop to Milford Earl and Bernice (Bruton) Wilson.

After coming to the area in 1975, he retired from the Port Angeles School District.

Mr. Wilson, who was a member of Lighthouse Assembly of God, was devoted to his faith and traveled to Central America for mission construction projects.

In his personal life, he had remodeled many homes as well as owning a janitorial business and being an orchardist.

He also was a pilot, scuba diver, hunter and fisherman.

Mr. Wilson moved from the North Olympic Peninsula in July.

In addition to his wife, the former Kathy S. Traub, Mr. Wilson's survivors include daughters and sons-in-law Diane and "Butch" Greathouse of Sammamish, Julie and Dan Craker of Tenino, and Jeannie and Galen Kaemingk of Omak; sisters and brothers-in-law Shirley and Don Clark of Spokane and Charlotte and Lyle Schroeder of Idaho; seven grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Services: Today, May 2, 3 p.m. to 5 p.m., and Wednesday, May 3 9 a.m. to 1 p.m., visitation in Drennan-Ford Funeral Home, 260 Monroe Road, Port Angeles.

Wednesday, May 3, 1 p.m., memorial at Drennan-Ford with the Rev. Eldon Officer officiating. Burial will be later at Sullivan Cemetery in Winthrop.