

May 28 1924 Fulton Patriot

McCully— Died at the home of his son, Dr. R.R. McCully at Union Springs, May 23rd, Robert B. McCully, aged 79 years. He is survived by two sons, Dr. R. R. McGully of Union Springs, and Amos McCully of this city; one daughter, Mrs. William Schenck of Madison, N, J.; one brother, Wesley McCully of Fulton; one sister, Mrs. Ida Ferris of Oswego. The remains were brought to this city and funeral services held at the Case Memorial chapel Monday afternoon; interment in Mt. Adnah. The deceased was well known in Fulton, where he resided for many years. He served in the Civil war and was one of the few survivors of Andersonville prison pen. He was member of Post Schenck, G.A.R., of Fulton.